instructions

1

Print the mini stocking template and cut the pieces out.

Mini Felt Stockings

Pin the main stocking piece to your felt pieces, you will need (2) main pieces of felt per stocking, and cut out your felt. Pin your cuff template to your white piece of felt. You will need (1) cuff piece per stocking, and cut out your felt.

3

Cut any felt pieces you want for a design. I used two circles, and some rectangles, triangles to make a snowman and a triangle and a rectangle to make a tree. You can also add buttons and any other embellishments or a glitter glue design. Glue the pieces onto the front stocking piece using Aleene's tacky glue.

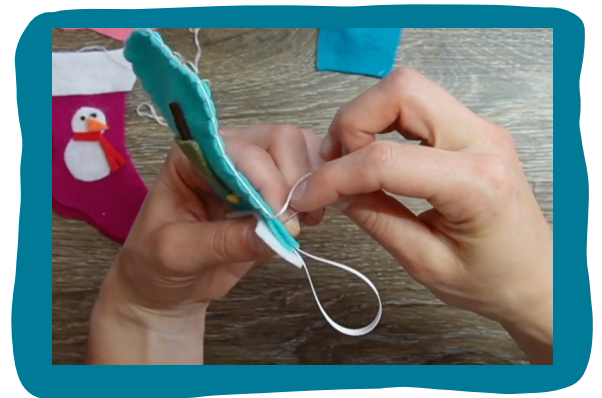

Mini Felt Stockings

- 4 Glue the cuff onto the front stocking piece. Repeat with all of your stocking designs, and let them dry completely.

- 5 Using (6) strands of embroidery floss thread your needle and tie a knot at the end. Sew the two stocking pieces together using the blanket stitch. Start in the cuff area on the “toe side”, stop a few stitches before you get to the end on the “heel side”.

- 6 Cut your hanging ribbon, about 4” long, and fold in half. Place the raw edges along the “heel side” edge near the cuff, as you finish stitching the stocking make sure to sew through the ribbon to secure it inside the stocking.

Mini Felt Stockings

- 7 Tie a knot to secure the thread, trim your thread and you have a cute mini stocking. You can hang them into a garland or you can give as gifts with a note and candy.
