

Valentine Heart Doodle Greeting Cards

supplies

- Cardstock-I used white
- Scrap paper-to practice
- Sharpie
- Pencil, eraser
- Markers-I like to pick 2 or 3 colors that go together.

tools

- Scissors

instructions

1 Start by folding your paper, and cut if necessary. Using an 8.5 x 11" sheet of cardstock, you can make 2 smaller cards or one larger one. You can also play around with the orientation of the card and how you want it to open.

2 Draw overlapping hearts with your pencil on the front of your card, it might be helpful to practice a few hearts on a scrap piece of paper.

3

Once you have the hearts on your card how you like them, erase where the lines overlap so some hearts are behind other ones.

4

Trace the outline of the hearts with a sharpie.

5

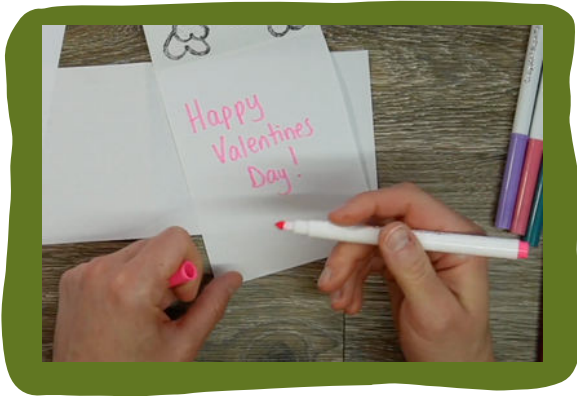

Choose the markers you like and start to doodle/color inside the hearts with the markers. I like to use different patterns on each of them.

6

Trace the black sharpie thicker if you want the black outline to be bolder.

7

Write your Valentine's message inside.
